HISTORY & HERITAGE

Hotel La Palma formerly known as Locanda Pagano, is the oldest hotel on Capri since 1822. The original owner, notary Giuseppe Pagano, hosted travellers in his villa for the pleasure of long conversations and often, his guests were artists, poets, writers, architects, painters and musicians, all who showed their gratitude by painting the walls, writing poems, singing and playing in what was dubbed the ‘Artists’ Hotel.’ A collective of creatives began to gather from all over the world who were inspired by the genius loci, charmed by the smooth, familiar atmosphere of this eccentric hotel.

DESIGN BY FRANCIS SULTANA

The original hotel on Capri is once more the chicest address on the island. Each of the 50 rooms – including 18 suites – offer its own private balcony or terrace. The property is being transformed by Francis Sultana, a true maestro in the world of high-end interior design who, in addition to overseeing the lobby, rooms, restaurants, swimming pool and spa, is also at the helm of La Palma Beach Club.
