Oetker Collection announces the appointment of Jean-Marie Le Gall as General Manager of The Woodward, Geneva

With over 30 years of hospitality experience across Europe, Jean-Marie Le Gall takes the helm of The Woodward, Oetker Collection's Masterpiece Hotel in Geneva

April 2024 – Oetker Collection is pleased to announce that Jean-Marie Le Gall has been appointed General Manager of The Woodward in Geneva. He commenced his role on April 3rd 2024.

A highly respected hotelier with exemplary leadership skills, in Le Gall's most recent role as General Manager for Hotel Fouquet's Paris he demonstrated an ability to deliver outstanding results inclusive of taking on the responsibility of Acting General Manager for the opening of the hotel brand's New York outpost.

A French native, who is fluent in English and Spanish and proficient in Arabic, Le Gall has an impressive background in cross-functional team management, project planning, economic analysis, and total quality management. Le Gall's tenure as Director of Sales and Marketing at prestigious establishments such as the Plaza Athénée Paris and Le Royal Monceau - Raffles Paris further highlight his extensive skillset.

Timo Gruenert, CEO of Oetker Collection, said: "We are delighted with Jean-Marie joining Oetker Collection as the General Manager of The Woodward. Given the masterpiece that this hotel is, this appointment presents an exciting opportunity for Jean-Marie to continue his track record of excellence. He is a passionate and caring professional who shares our meticulous attention to detail. Jean-Marie's leadership style is inclusive and based in making an emotional connection, which draws out the best in his teams and this very much resonates with us as a company."

Of his new appointment at The Woodward, Jean-Marie Le Gall comments: "It is truly exciting to join the prestigious Oetker Collection family and lead a property as special as The Woodward. I have a vision for its next chapter and I'm excited to bring the teams on this journey as we further enhance and elevate the guest experience together at Geneva's first all-suite hotel."

About The Woodward

Located on Quai Wilson on the shores of Lake Geneva and offering a panoramic view of Mont Blanc, The Woodward marks Oetker Collection's first masterpiece hotel in Switzerland. Originally built in 1901 in a post-Hausmann style, following an extraordinary renovation by renowned architect Pierre-Yves Rochon, today the hotel boasts 26 suites, which are complemented by two gourmet restaurants, the two Michelin-starred L'Atelier Robuchon and Le Jardinier, a bar, a private cigar lounge, as well as a 1200m² Guerlain Spa and a private sports club.
